Artist: Jorgge Menna Baretto

LB2021 Project: Jorgge Menna Baretto is a land artist, looking at how growing and eating can shape the landscape.

LB2021 Project: Jorgge Menna Baretto has collaborated with a local mural artist and Liverpool John Moores University students on the design of a mural. The mural sits outside of the Bluecoat Gallery and has images of drawings that the students made of weeds that they found on their walks around the city. The large and bright mural brings attention and eyes to often an overlooked but important part of nature, weeds.
